Topsham, Maine 04086

Dear Mr. Aldridge:

How absolutely wonderful to be able to anticipate your book on Maine poets! It will be a boon to this library, and you may be assured that it will be ordered -- and used!

We do hope that you will want to inscribe and present a copy to be placed in the Maine Author Collection.

Congratulations, best wishes for its success.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. MacGuire:

The invitation to the reception in honor of the publication of MAINE LINES pleases me, and I wish so much that I might send you an acceptance.

Instead, I must send regrets, and my thanks for being included.

We look forward to seeing the book, and wish it all kinds of success.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mr. Aldridge:

What a truly beautiful book! We noted it for the Maine in Print column of the Bulletin of the Maine Library Association. Our reference librarians fell upon it with gratitude. And now the Maine Author Collection has its very own copy. Thank you.

Thank you, too, for collecting these poems with a discerning eye, and for making it a most inviting book with such lovely illustrations. It is good to have a fresh selection of poems about Maine, and to be reminded that our poetry did not cease with Robinson and Millay. Will you do it again -- ten -- twenty -- years hence?

Sincerely yours
